Building Winning Algorithmic Trading Systems (Davey) — Fill-in-the-Blank Quiz

Name: _____ Date: _____ Score: ____ / 30 questions (one underline = one missing word or short phrase)

Introduction & Chapters 1–3

1. Davey's returns in three consecutive World Cup of Futures Trading Championships were _____ percent, _____ percent and _____ percent.

2. The live cattle contract was _____ lbs, with a daily limit of $_____ per contract.

3. His first system used a triple moving average of ___-, ___- and ____-day lengths.

4. In 1987 Larry Williams grew $10,000 to over $_____ million; the 2004 winner, _____, gained _____ percent.

Chapters 4–7

5. _____ went bankrupt and customers were made whole; PFG Best collapsed in _____.

6. Slippage assumed: stop orders ___ to ___ ticks, limit orders ___ ticks.

7. A profit factor above _____ has merit, but below _____ the system struggles later.

8. In the Monte Carlo inputs, gold initial margin was $_____ and the example stop-trading equity was $_____.

Chapters 8–11

9. The third scenario is a blind _____ strategy, found after testing ____ million strategies.

10. Time frame contraction and dilation tests a 10-minute bar as ___- and ____-minute bars.

11. The March 2013 euro raw contract is _____; the June 2013 contract is _____.

12. The currency pit ran 8:20 A.M. to _____ P.M. Eastern; gold electronic trading is about ____ hours a day.

Chapters 12–15

13. Table 12.4 showed the baseline at -$1,105, so Davey stopped trading near the start of _____ 2013.

14. Table 12.1: max intraday drawdown -$_____, average _____ bars in trade, over _____ trading days.

15. Table 13.1: the 2008 out-of-sample result was -$_____ and 2009 was +$_____.

16. Table 13.2: Year 1 return on account was _____; Years 1–2 combined was _____.

17. The free Monte Carlo tool is Equity _____ by NeoTick; the paid one is @Risk by _____.

18. Max drawdown: Euro night $_____, Euro day $_____, combined $_____.

Chapters 16–20

19. At x = 0.32, there was a ____ percent chance of a max drawdown of _____ percent or more.

20. In KJD2013-10 BrkOut A the final "A" is the _____; "___" marks a historical walk-forward version.

21. Maximum loss per euro trade was $_____ after $_____ slippage and commission, equal to ____ ticks.

22. Euro day Monte Carlo: start equity $_____, max drawdown _____ percent, return _____ percent.

23. With 2-to-1 sizing the account needed $_____ and the annual return fell to _____ percent (vs. 362).

Chapters 21–25

24. Homer Simpson's drinking bird taps the "___" key and nearly causes a _____ meltdown.

25. One money manager's exit rule is _____ times the max drawdown plus a ____-month commitment.

26. The rollover example: bought September at _____, stop at _____, closed profit on the roll $_____.

27. After 18 days, historical average profit was $_____ but actual was -$_____.

28. Week 7: the system traded ____ days, ____ percent of days, vs. a historical ____ percent.

29. Billy claimed $15,000 would become over _____ within a year; Connie posted results on _____.

30. Davey tested _____ to _____ ideas per keeper, and first learned futures in the late _____s.